The Comptroller, Mysore Government.
All Heads of Departments.
No. Fl. 2116/58 dated 9th June 1903.
Sanctions the grant from the beginning of the next officials year of local allowance on a scale fixed therein to such officials and menials as are not already in receipt of such allowance.

Application of the Police Inspector of the Bowringpet Taluk praying for the grant of a local allowance to himself and his establishment, in consequence of the dearness of living there.

Both the Superintendent of Police, Kolar Gold Fields and the Deputy Commissioner, Kolar recommend the grant. The Inspector General of Police in supporting the recommendation states when officials of other departments employed in the said Taluk are granted local allowances on account of living there being more costly than at other places, the request of the Police for favour of similar concession does not appear to be extravagant.

Apart in their Proceedings No. 3429-30 dated 24th January 1902 have sanctioned the following allowances to the officials of the Baramgpet Taluk :— (Letter in the file)

1. Amildar — 50 Rs a month
2. Sheristadar — 5 — " —
3. Head Gumastah - 3 — " —
4. 6 Other Officials + Shekdars } — 2 — " — each
5. Manials . . — 1 — " —

for orders

The allowances may, I think, be sanctioned at rates similar to Revenue Officers of corresponding grades. This would be --5 to the Inspector, 3 Rs to each Jamedar, 2 Rs to each Daffedar, and 1 R. to each ~~Rs~~ constable.

In no malnad Taluks? the Police Inspectors get a malnad allowance like Amildars, but in the malnad Taluks of Koppa, Mudigere & Manjarabad where there is much coffee cultivation, the Inspectors are granted an allowance of Rs 50 per mensem. (vide Govt Pro: No. 13497-8 / 1656 dated 29th May 1899). Recently Govt refused to grant a semimalnad allowance of Rs 25 to the Police Inspectors of Chikmaglur and Tarikere Taluks. It may be seen therefore that the practice of giving mahal or Ghat batta to Police pre-vails in all the Districts. Necessary provision therefor is being made in the Police Budget for every year. Under these circumstances the Inspector General requests that the order de-clining to sanction addl allowance to the Police at Bowringpet may be kindly re-considered.

The grant of an additional allowance to the officials of all Departments residing at Bowringpet is pending consideration of the Government (vide Secnd Councillor's note + the Dewan's order thereon on the office note in the linked file put up)
